THE MATHEWS PAMILY.

The world's wonders, peeriess and alone,
The tar-renowned and never yet excelled;
The utile, CHAMPION, conceded as their owr
'Gainst all competitors for years they've he
The long-acknowledged masters of the stage.
Far above all they hold their lotty station;
In hurope long the fashion and the rage;
Now in America the great sensation.

THE MATHEWS FAMILY,
Matchless in grace and art;
Fearless and daring,
No labor sparing;
In each leat
They beat
They beat
They beat
Their like we ne'er again may meet;
so well they play their part.

The marvel of the universe,
The monarch of the air,
We find in ARTHUR GREGORY;
None with him can compare.
Skill, grace and daring so combined,
We scarcely hope again to find.
No equal has he yet;
No rival ever met.
His salary is so immense
That when to you it's told,
Right well you may,
And truly, say
He's worth his weight in gold.

The great THREE TRIPLE BAR act, Which takes the house by storm, MASTER THEODORE MATHEWS and ARTHUR GREGORY will perform. The audience, filled with wonder And breath abated, pause Till, like a burst of thunder, Breaks torth the wild applause.

If you fail to see this, Or by chance should forget it, The sight that you miss You'll forever regret it.

The wonderful musician, HENRY PAGE,
The master Cornet soloist of the age,
Whom even LEVY has contessed the smartest,
Appears upon the THEATRE COMIQUE stage
And proves himself a perfess artist.

Of public favorites the list to head
There is none better known than Master BARNEY,
Who, with his droil Dutch Songs and Sayings smart,
Manages so well his audiences to blarney.

HARRIGAN AND HART
Answer next our call!
As comic character artists
The greatest of them all.
Their "Original Little Frauda!"
Approbation ever wins;
"The Day that We Went West,"
With "The Milcahey Twins,"
"The Big and Little of It!"
Mirth: and laughter provokes,
Well seasoned with their own
Funny stories and lokes;
Of their own songs and acts
The real originators—
Copied all through the Union
By a host of imitators.
Inimitable together,
Unparalleled apart—
A model pair of artists
Are HARRIGAN and HART.

ANOTHER HART! ANOTHER HART!—

ANOTHER HART! ANOTHER HART!—
And such a funny one!—
The fat King or Comedians,
The Fun-creating JOHN—
Agiant 'monest all funny men;
From floor to upper raiter
The very Theatre-seems to shake
When he comes on, with laughter,
JOHN HART, your very looks will make,
With laughing, people's sides to ache,

The essence of comical folks is here:
JOHN WILD, so quizzical, quaint and queer;
A favorite long to our public known.
With a comical style that's all bis own.
In dance or song, or sketch or act,
He's not to be matched, and that's a fact;
Whenever he on the stage appears
His figure is always hailed with cheers.
To draw it mild,
They've smiled on WILD
Like a public pet or favorite child.

If you'd like a rollicking Irish song
That will make you laugh in spite of yourself,
Or a good "come-all-you" loud and strong,
Just hear PETE CANNON, that comical elf. Just hear Full Consultation.

His songs are all original too,
And his style is one that will make you roar.

You'll say as everyhow's has said,
"I never laughed half so much before."

In singing and dancing, though many are seen. There's one the paim will bear away. The eccentric, comical, odd Jolin QUEEN, Who for frolic and fun will carry the day. When the "Broadway Dancing Master" comes. Or the "Washerwoman," so smart and spry, A fit of laughter John QUEEN provokes, And away at once vest buttons fly.

You've heard of "that young man
Who played the Banjo!"
Well, we've captured and caught him at last,
His name's WILLIAM WEST.
All pronounce him the best.
At the COMIQUE we've tethered him fast,
His songs are all new
And so comical too.
Come and hear him this week,
That's the best thing to do.

To hear a sweet singer none will refuse,
For a vocalist good is the thing to choose,
Who can people of every taste amuse,
And a spirited style in each song incuse,
And be comic enough to drive off the blues,
And a good dash of lun around diffuse.
Who of being stupid none can accuse,
Who has no little faults that we must excuse,
But with sones as fresh as the latest news which we in the papers each day peruse;
Such a vocalist is MISS JENNIE HUGHES.

Such a vocalist is sides Jankie Housies.

Miss Kitty O'Nell, there's life in her glance, there's life in her jig, and her song and dance, So spry, so neat,
So pretty and sweet,
And as 'at might say, if they happened to megt, so 'mighty handy, indeed, wid her feet.''

And now let us say, Miss ADA WRAY,
Hy far the most beautiful woman to-day
To be seen on the stage in all Broadway.
Of vocalists quite a queen,
And in burlesque, too, she's seen.
Talented, young and gay, Miss ADA WRAY
Will bear the sway, and many a laurel carry away.

THOSE TERRIBLE FIJI CANNIBALS,
From an island over the sea—
Those dreadful memeating savages,
What tellows they seem to be!
But they're kept so under control,
While JOSH HART has got them in hand,
That it's really a treat to hear them sing
The songs of their native land,
And do their wild dance—
It's a sort of a prance
That by seeing it only you'll understand.

To fill up the list of attractions here.
That crowds the house throughout the year.
There's E. D. GOODING, an artist of merit,
Foli of droil humor, life and spirit;
J. S. CROSSIN, an actor of versatility,
Who in drama and burlesque shows his ability;
J. A. GRAVER, an actor well known to all,
And the popular versatile, ROBERT HALL.
And G. L. STOUTE in the drama will shine,
While next comes in, to fill up the line,
Miss NELLIE SANFORD, so sparklins and bright,
Whose comedy fun causes isughter each night,
Whose comedy fun causes isughter each night,
Datch, Irish of Negro, to her all the same,
As a protean actress she's known to fame.
Miss KITTY TILSTONE, the dashing and gay.
Sull winning appleause in each part she may play.
BRADLEY and GUILFOIL you'll know at a glance;
They're hard to be equalled in both song and dance.

We offer, in fact, a programme prodigious,
With maught to offend the most fastidious:
To sum it allup, the world you may seek
To equal the Bill of the THEATHER COMIQUE.
OUR WHOLE ENTERTAINMENT
IS JUST THE THING
TO WHICH SISTERS, WIVES, DAUGHTERS
YOU SAFELY MAY BRING.
THE PUBLIC AND PRESS
ALL PREELY CONFESS
THERE'S NO BETTER SHOW
WHERE LADIES MAY GO
IN NEW YORK, and every one answers, 'THAT'S SO!"

MORAL.
When you read of this great company
And the wondrous enterprise of it,
You'll say THE COMIQUE leads the van—
"And that's just about the size of it." MATINEES MATINEES MATINEES

HAVE ENDEAVORED TO INDUCE CERTAIN managers of theatres to respect my property in the plays entitled "The Colleen Bawn," "The Octoroon,"
"The Life of an Actress," "Dot," "The Streets of New York,!" "Arrah na Pogue," and others well known by them to be American Copyrights. As they are unwilling to do so I find myself obliged to take legal steps to assert my rights.
There are some two or three hundred dramas of mine, English Copyrights, of which they have had the tree use during the last thirty years. The public will surely agree with me that the haryest managers have reaped on my pieces since "London Assurance" in 1841 to the present day might have prompted them to respect my property in those few American copyrights I possess
